

FACT SHEET #19 – Truck Drivers and Davis-Bacon

DAVIS-BACON PROVISIONS FOR CLEAN AND DRINKING WATER SRF PROJECTS

Information about Davis-Bacon and truck drivers on a construction project

1. Truck drivers of the contractor or subcontractor are covered by Davis-Bacon for time:

Spent driving on the “site of the work,” and

Spent loading or unloading materials and supplies on the “site of the work,” if such time is more than minimal.

2. Truck drivers are also covered when:

Transporting materials and supplies between a facility that is part of the “site of the work” and the actual construction site; or

Transporting portions of a building or work between a site where a significant portion of the project is being constructed and the physical place where the building or work will remain.

3. Truck drivers are not covered in the following instances:

Material delivery truck drivers while off the “site of the work”,

Truck drivers of a contractor or subcontractor traveling between a commercial facility and the Davis-Bacon job when they are off the “site of the work.”

Truck drivers whose time spent on the “site of the work” is minimal for pick-up or drop off.
