

Public meetings have been announced within the drainages of the Black and Ottauquechee rivers related to water quality management planning.

The Vermont Water Quality Division of the Department of Environmental Conservation will be hosting a series of public meetings over the next several months to discuss a range of topics. The topics and meeting locations are shown below. Each of the meetings will occur from 6:30 pm to 8 pm.

Tuesday, January 20, 2009

Basin 10 Watershed Council Meeting – Presentation and discussion of town planning and zoning strategies to address water quality in the Black and Ottauquechee watersheds.

Location: Two Rivers-Ottawuechee Regional Commission Offices, 3117 Rose Hill, Woodstock, VT.

Tuesday, February 17, 2009

Basin 10 Watershed Council Meeting – Presentation and discussion on planning for Wildlife and Travel Corridors in the water quality management plan for the Black and Ottauquechee watersheds.

Location: Plymouth Municipal Building, 68 Town Office Road, Plymouth, VT.

Tuesday, March 17, 2009

Basin 10 Watershed Council Meeting – Presentation and discussion on Floods and Flood Hazards planning in the water quality management plan for the Black and Ottauquechee watersheds.

Location: Springfield State Office Building, 100 Mineral Street, Springfield, VT.